CARA by casetext

Common source of litigator stress:

Missing a key case.

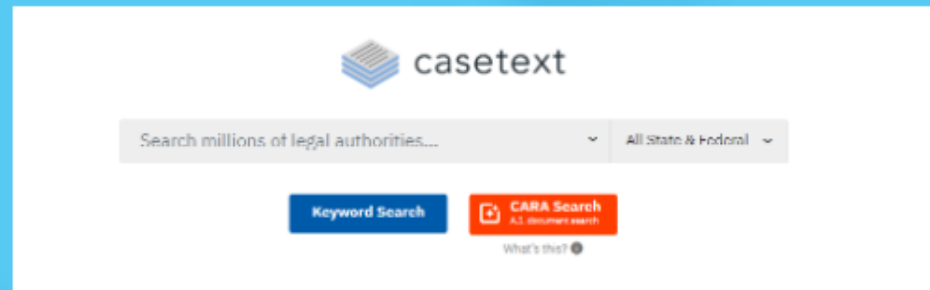

How does CARA Work?

Simple interface

Drag and drop

AI-powered research focused on the context of the brief

CARA

Have CARA A.I. find what you're missing

Casetext's CARA A.I. analyzes any legal document and finds authorities with similar facts and legal arguments. Try it now and see what you're missing.

Drag a document here

Or select a file

PDFs, Word docs, or text files

-  Works with both draft and completed briefs or complaints.
-  Upload your opponent's documents to find authorities that undermine their position.
-  Casetext uses bank-level security and is trusted by the world's top firms.
-  Casetext does not store or save your documents or drafts.

CARA Search Result
